DETAIL NOTES

Courses in "BOLD" require a grade of "C-" or better for this major.
* - Prerequisites: Courses prefixed by * indicate prerequisites are required. Students are responsible for checking and fulfilling course prerequisites listed in the undergraduate catalog.
Δ - Graduate Coursework: Students planning to do graduate work in mathematical economics or statistics are urged to take MATH 191G (in place of MATH 142G) and MATH 192G. A grade of C- or better is required in 191G.

GENERAL NOTES

Age of Credits: Business course credits earned within the preceding ten years may be applied toward an undergraduate degree from the College of Business. Business course credits completed more than ten years prior to the degree application may be reviewed at the student's request by the course department head and dean (or a designee) to determine their continued suitability to satisfy current degree, major and minor requirements and learning objectives.

Section M80: Course section M80 is restricted to students completing one of College of Business online Marketing or General Business degree completion programs. Other online sections are open to the NMSU general population.

SEASONAL COURSES IN YOUR MAJOR

Some courses are offered seasonally (only during particular semesters). Always plan accordingly.

Fall: The following courses are typically only offered during fall semesters.

- ECON 337V
- ECON 350
- ECON 432V
- ECON 449
- ECON 457 (may also be offered during summer sessions)
- ECON 465

Spring: The following courses are typically only offered during spring semesters.

- ECON 340
- ECON 384V

INTERNATIONAL BUSINESS DOUBLE MAJORS

Students may not receive credit for both ECON 489 and IB 489. For this reason, students majoring in both economics and international business must consult with the head of the department to arrange for a suitable substitution.

OTHER NOTES

This document is a planning tool and is not a contract between the student and the university. This document has been designed to assist you with planning courses to complete degree requirements. Every effort has been made to insure its accuracy; however, final confirmation of degree requirements is subject to department, college and university approval.
